

Ricky Cooper is a 17 year old singer/songwriter/ guitar player from Peytona, WV, Ricky is self taught in guitar and says he feels most comfortable onstage in front of a crowd.

Ricky has won several talent shows and enjoys playing at Fairs and Festivals in his home state of WV. In June of 2014 Ricky was chosen as one of the top 13 singers in the Applause Rising Talent Showcase in Orlando, Florida, in 2015 he was named WV's First Redneck Idol at WV Power Park, 2015 Coal Field Idol, 1st place at the Texaco Showdown where he moved on to the state competition, 3rd place in a Nashville Competition at Wild Wing Cafe.

His most recent accomplishment was being named New Country Entertainer of the Year and New Country Male Vocalist of the Year for the state of TN. Ricky attended the North American Country Music Association International in March 2015 where he won Most Promising Songwriter for "Our Way", Video Of the Year, Album of the Year, Male Vocalist of the Year and Entertainer of the Year. His most recent NACMAI awards include Traditional Country Male Vocalist of the Year Traditional Male Entertainer of the Year, Country Album of the Year for "The Road" and Most Promising Songwriter for "That Old Six String".

Ricky performs for students at schools and shares his love of music with them and encourages them to follow their dreams! Ricky enjoys regular trips to Nashville where he appears on the tv show Nashville Spotlight and loves working with Mr. Mike Jennings. All of Ricky's social media accounts can be found on his website at rickycoopermusic.com.

Ricky has opened up for Andy Griggs, Marshall Lowery Band, The Davison Brothers, Cody Wickline and A Thousand Horses. Special thank you to my dear friend Mr. John Mathews who goes above and beyond for all of us up and coming artists.

If interested in booking Ricky please go to rickycoopermusic.com or email leslie0525@frontier.com or call 304-836-5984.

Amelia Photography